IV. Crowdsourcing:

- The FEMA Crowdsourcing Unit is coordinating crowdsourcing efforts with various Digital Volunteer Networks (DVNs) and also collaborating with the private sector and other partners to access crowdsourced data from existing crowdsourcing platforms to provide situational awareness at the FEMA National Response Coordination Center (NRCC). These crowdsourcing resources are organized by FEMA's Lifelines and are intended to fill any gaps and provide redundancy to the official response efforts by leveraging nontraditional sources of information and digital volunteers. See this Google Doc for the most updated version of the table. See this Google Slide Deck for updates from DVNs (Google Doc and Slides accessible in Microsoft Edge web browser). Crowdsourcing Resources will be provided by lifelines in this Story Map for future calls as they have more significant activity.
 - Daily Crowdsourcing Coordination Call at 1700 (5:00 pm EST) for 1 hour

 - Call-In Number: +16699006833, 2228882929#
 - Slack Channel: <https://femacrowdsourcing.slack.com>
 - Email: FEMA-Crowdsourcing@fema.dhs.gov
- Updates:
 - Social Listening
 - The Social Listening sections are curated by External Affairs. Volume of conversation is similar to yesterday. There has been an increase in FEMA discussion which is becoming increasingly complex as survivors navigate the application and assistance process. There continues to be a high level of discussion about PODs. Individuals in Southern Georgia are concerned that their story is not being told and worry that it could affect the flow of resources to the area. A growing number of people are discussing medical needs, particularly insulin needs.
 - For any questions or comments regarding the social listening sections of this report, please email FEMA-NRCC-EAUL@fema.dhs.gov
 - Public Perception
 - FEMA Conversation:
 - Survivors are wondering if their homes would qualify as "unlivable" if there is no sewer/water system in their area. Some who have minimal structural damage to their homes but are without access to water or sewer have applied for assistance because they feel their home is uninhabitable. However, one woman feels she was denied assistance because the application asks if you have been without utilities or sewer for 5 days or more, and when she applied it had been four days.

- Some evacuees (both FL and GA) are saying they have been told by FEMA they need to return to their homes to complete the application process. This has been frustrating for those who are looking for assistance more quickly.
- Survivors are telling each other to register with FEMA as soon as possible so they can get refunds for expenditures during the recovery process including, hotels, tarps, etc.
- There continues to be confusion over TSA and lodging reimbursement. Some survivors are saying that hotels in the area are accepting check-in from individuals who have “pending approvals” from FEMA
- There is growing discussion about the Blue Roof Project. Discussion of FEMA and blue roof tend to go hand-in-hand.
- Public Sentiment:
 - As power restoration improves in many areas those who have yet to have power restored are growing impatient. Each update on power results in a cascade of comments from survivors sharing that they still don’t have power and wondering when crews will make it to their neighborhoods.
 - Many Georgia residents are asking that Albany State University push back its homecoming celebrations. There is concern that the week-long celebration will bring additional people to the area and cause further strain on already limited resources.
 - In a Georgia press briefing this morning a local official stated that much of Atlanta doesn’t have any idea of what is going on in Southern Georgia. He stressed the need to tell the story of what is happening in their region to make sure resources continue to flow into the area.
